

Bring your global mental health benefits together

Even the best mental health programs fail when they're invisible. Visibility drives utilization. Utilization drives outcomes. Bring Spring Health together with your medical, dental, and vision so employees find the right care and provider faster.

Expedited implementation

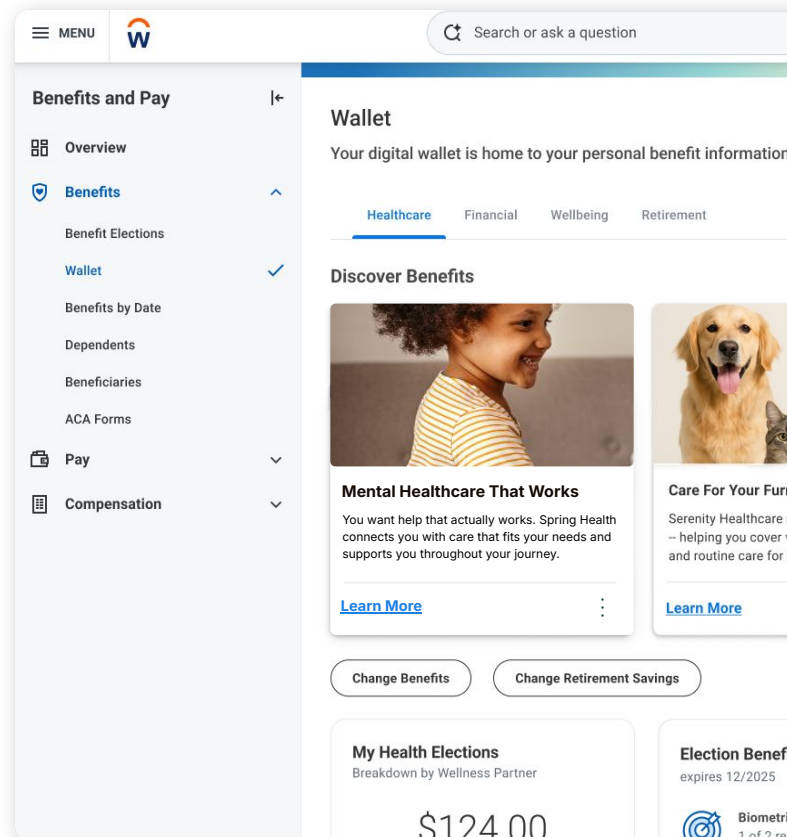

Deep, pre-built Workday integrations streamline eligibility, plan design configuration, and enrollment, freeing up your team for other priorities.

Equitable care for everyone

Consistent quality care no matter where your people call home, available right in Workday.

A single view of your benefits

Workday gives employers a holistic view of their benefits ecosystem. Spring Health powers the mental health layer inside it so you get a complete view of your program's performance.

Workday runs your workforce. Spring Health powers your mental health strategy.
